Abstracts

The Russian economy in 2020 came under the powerful influence of two negative factors at once: the rapid spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and its detrimental effect on the global economy; as well as the collapse in oil prices in Q1. Consequently, the national currency depreciated significantly against the US dollar and the euro. In response, the government and Bank of Russia introduced several measures to support the economy and citizens. For example, additional monetary support for...
