Abstracts

With the impact of the pandemic waning in the UK, it was hoped that 2023 would be a year where the consumer foodservice industry made significant steps to recover to pre-pandemic levels. However, in terms of transactions and outlet numbers, this did not occur. A variety of factors meant that both businesses and local consumers faced a difficult 2023, factors which negatively impacted the performance of consumer foodservice. First, it is relevant to compare the operating environments of both 2022...
