Abstracts

Consumer health is expected to register moderate constant value growth in 2023. Continuing economic uncertainty as a result of Russia's invasion of Ukraine and high inflation is continuing to have an effect and consumers are expected to be highly price sensitive and prioritise value for money. Players are responding by offering discounts and promotions. That being said, inflation is easing in 2023. Geopolitical tensions in the region has also led to a significant increase in the number of immigr...
