Abstracts

The Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic had a major impact on almost every category within consumer health in the Netherlands. While the COVID-19 situation eased by 2022, 2023 is the first full year after the pandemic in which players, retailers and consumers have been free of measures aimed at stemming the spread of the virus in the country. Schools have reopened and office workers have been allowed to return to the office, instead of having to work from home. Consumers have also resumed out-of-hom...
