Abstracts

Globally, the consumer payment market has more than doubled over the last decade to reach US$47 trillion in 2014. There are three main themes that will dominate the consumer payments storyline in 2015: driving financial card payment volume by identifying new potential markets; the undeniable impact of mobile on payments; and lastly whether payment entrants should be considered friends or foes of the established system.

Euromonitor International's Consumer Payments 2015: Trends, Developments and Prospects global briefing offers insight into the size and shape of the Consumer Finance market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts provide an invaluable perspective on market evolution and the criteria for success. The briefing leverages Euromonitor International's 360-degree coverage of the global payments' landscape including insight on consumer debt.

Product coverage: Consumer Lending, Financial Cards and Payments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
