Abstracts

Consumer credit has experienced a significant drop in all areas of gross lending in 2023. In light of the sharp increases in the cost of living since 2022, Austrians have generally been frugal with expenditure. Individuals are focused on meeting their immediate basic needs, which hindered demand for consumer credit in all areas. High interest rates also led consumers to postpone purchases on credit, a factor that was exacerbated by the lack of 0% finance deals available. Most leading retailers h...
