Abstracts

Consumer lending in Portugal maintains its positive growth trend in 2023. Demand for loans both for last-minute expenses and for current expenses is rising as consumers lose purchasing power and as savings stashed during the pandemic diminish. In 2023 all areas are seeing positive growth, with the exception of gross lending in education lending. In auto lending credit demand is growing in 2023 both for new and used cars, with used cars leading.
