Abstracts

The geopolitical developments of 2022 and 2023 have had a big impact on retail in Italy. Russia's war in Ukraine continued in 2023 with no sign of resolution at the time of writing, while the emergence of further instability in other parts of the world have also created uncertainty. As a result, manufacturers and retailers alike found themselves struggling to maintain profit margins as the cost of fuel, energy, ingredients and labour has all increased. Facing mounting costs retailers were forced...

Euromonitor International's Convenience Retailers in Italy report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
