Abstracts

The high growth for convenience retailers in 2023 in Romania, was driven by rising interest in proximity shopping. Price growth over the level of inflation limited consumers' purchases to basic food items. Reduction of purchasing power due to inflation, increased interest for proximity shopping, with convenience stores gaining consumer budgets allocated to essential products for daily needs. In addition, following the lifting of COVID-19 restrictions in 2022, there continued to be increased foot...
