Abstracts

Convenience stores in Thailand continued to recover and rise in 2023, with expansion in terms of outlet numbers a major driver. Rapid urbanisation, longer working hours, and declines in average household size boosted demand for smaller-format stores in convenient neighbourhood locations. Consumers can find everything they need in their local convenience store, with these retailers expanding and adapting their ranges as demand grows. Leading convenience stores including 7-Eleven, Lotus's go fresh...

Euromonitor International's Convenience Retailers in Thailand report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight.
