Abstracts

As it did for many industries, the pandemic distorted the growth curve for convenience retailers. Following historically high current value growth rates in 2021 and 2022, sales slowed for convenience retailers (which encompasses convenience stores and forecourt retailers) in the US in 2023. Recovery in recreational air travel contributed to the slowdown, by impinging on the preference for road travel, which fuelled growth for forecourt retailers during the later phase of the pandemic. In additio...
