Abstracts

Convenience stores had particularly benefited from the pandemic in 2020 and subsequent restrictions, which led to greater time spent at home for many local consumers. During this time, many Israelis preferred to shop closer to home for basic groceries or small “top-up” shops for items missed in larger stores such as supermarkets. The perception of greater potential of exposure to the virus when visiting a crowded supermarket for instance, meant that convenience stores recorded a notable...

Euromonitor International's Convenience Stores in Israel report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
