Abstracts

With the prolonged impact of COVID-19, which continued during most of 2021, delivery services grew significantly, as consumers maintained home seclusion and refrained from going out when possible. While the number of convenience stores in Japan is high and they are located in various areas, there was still a need for convenience stores players to meet consumer demand for door to door delivery. With such a background, several major convenience stores players continued to incorporate delivery serv...

Euromonitor International's Convenience Stores in Japan report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face.
