Abstracts

The effects of inflation and the general economic crisis are still evident in Italy in 2023. This is reflected in an increase in current value terms across all categories within cooking ingredients and meals in 2023. However, this is contrasted with the fact that many categories are also experiencing a contraction in retail volume terms, which is mainly due to the reduced spending capacity of many Italians. Among the most affected categories has been edible oils, which has continued to see signi...
