Abstracts

Inflationary pressures continue in 2023, however, we are seeing an overall resilience in cooking ingredients and meals in the Philippines – in both value and volume terms, variably. Shortages in raw materials continue to affect some categories, such as seen with sunflower oil in edible oils, however, such challenges appear to be stabilising. Overall, the return to social mobility, following the period of pandemic restrictions and lockdowns, is assisting with the revival of economic activities. A...
