Abstracts

The shopping spree that started after the economic crisis, continued in 2012 and 2013 in consumer appliances, however, this time even local players already well positioned in growth markets decided to look outside and gain a piece of the global pie. In an already tough global competitive environment characterised by sluggish growth, this intensified the competition even further and growth had to be sought not only in emerging markets, but also in other categories and market segments...

Euromonitor International's Corporate Strategies in Major Appliances : Looking For Growth Beyond the Traditional global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. The report also identifies the leading companies/brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the competitive landscape - be it new product developments, technological innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Additionally, trade statistics and producer's shares will answer questions on where appliances are produced and where they are being exported to, how quickly these units are moving, which companies are producing how much, and whether all categories are behaving in the same way. Collectively, this gives a complete view in both marketing and production planning strategies. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change.
