Abstracts

Cough, cold and allergy (hay fever) remedies are expected to perform better in 2023 than in the previous year, with positive value and volume growth. As life in Algeria returns to normal, and social contact increases, there is increased coughs, colds and allergies and this is expected to support volume growth. With many people's immune systems temporarily weakened, due to less exposure to pathogens during the pandemic lockdowns, this further adds to the levels of cold and flu viruses spreading i...
