Abstracts

Most banks perceive credit cards as high risk due to experiencing frequent default rates in the past. As such, credit cards continue to be relatively scarce in Nigeria, with mainly high net-worth individuals owning credit cards. Also, due to the instability of the naira, many credit cards are denominated in dollars. In 2023, credit cards is expected to register growth both in number of cards, as well in terms of spend, with high inflation contributing to value growth. Personal credit cards are a...
