Abstracts

During the COVID-19 pandemic, consumers have been subject to a number of major lifestyle changes, included strict regulations restricting freedom of movement around the country. Consumers have also faced strict curfews as home seclusion became a key tactic for the Kingdom's authorities to curb the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic, especially in 2020. As such, consumers spent a lot more time at home in 2020, which led to a considerable surge in retail demand for products in dairy as at-home consum...
