Abstracts

2023 is being marked by an overall decrease in retail volume sales for many dairy products and alternatives in France, accompanied by an increase in value sales. The latter is being driven by notable price rises, due to the combination of increased costs in energy, raw materials, packaging and distribution. Inflation has not been as high in France compared to many other EU countries, but prices have risen and as a result, local consumers are increasingly searching for attractive discounts and pr...
