Abstracts

While overall sector volume tended to decline during the first half of the review period, the volume were actually increasing since 2009 and continued to progress in 2010, at least during the first few months of 2010. Against all expectations, this was not due to the impetus of discounters, which lost ground to supermarkets/hypermarkets, despite the predicted increase of the former in a context of crisis. 'A' brands surprisingly progressed more than private label, owing to their impressive...
