Abstracts

Condensed milk is popular in the Philippines due to its versatility and cultural significance. It is a staple ingredient in many traditional Filipino desserts and beverages, such as halo-halo, leche flan or coffee. Condensed milk is often used as a sweetener for coffee and tea, a topping for bread and pastries, and a component of savoury dishes, such as adobo. Its sweet and creamy texture as well as its long shelf life make it a convenient choice for adding richness to a wide array of dishes. Me...
