Abstracts

Driven by population growth and continued urbanisation, the number of debit cards in Morocco continues to soar. Traditionally, local consumers show a strong preference for using debit cards thanks to the safety and reliability of paying with existing money rather than borrowed funds with high interest rates. Further, debit cards are the most accessible and straightforward type of financial cards in the country, and local banks continue to push them as offering the broadest range of incentives.

Euromonitor International's Debit Card Transactions in Morocco report establishes the size and structure of the market for ATMs cards, smart cards, credit cards, debit cards, charge cards, pre-paid cards and store cards.
