Abstracts

Debit card transactions remained the main driver behind the shift from cash to card payments in 2023. Every bank account holder in Austria owns at least one debit card, which is heavily favoured for payments at the POS, with debit card consumers confident that there are no extra fees or hidden costs. The outbreak of COVID-19 boosted the shift from cash to cards further, with retailers recommending cashless payment for safety reasons. Furthermore, the social acceptance of using cards for smaller...
