Abstracts

While the use of debit cards as online payment tools was quite limited before the onset of the COVID-19 crisis, the category saw huge growth over the course of 2020 as demand for e-commerce boomed during the pandemic. With consumers increasingly interested in engaging with e-commerce, a retail channel which is very much in line with the principles of social distancing, many online merchants began offering their customers the option to pay for their purchases using a debit cards. This was the mai...
