Abstracts

Deodorants saw strong growth in current value and retail volume terms in 2022 as COVID-19 related restrictions were eased and consumers returned to face-to-face social contact in the workplace and in leisure scenarios, while many people returned to sport and fitness activities. During the periods of most severe restrictions when consumers were largely confined to their homes demand for deodorants dropped but with COVID-19 fears subsiding in 2022 consumer confidence started to return and with it...
