After a long period of contracting value sales, in 2017 deodorants saw an improvement, with only a negligible decline. Deodorant roll-ons had a significant impact on the overall performance of deodorants, as it declined strongly once again in 2017 in both volume and current value terms. This was mainly due to saturation, driven by consumer trends which negatively impacted the category. Also, public health concerns stemmed from bad publicity associating specific substances in deodorants with heal...
