Abstracts

Even before the outbreak of COVID-19, department stores had been under pressure with the channel losing sales to other retailing channels and e-commerce. The decline continued in 2020 as the first national lockdown in April resulted in significantly lower footfall in stores. Even though the Delta variant resulted in lockdown restrictions across key states such as New South Wales and Victoria, department stores witnessed a partial recovery in 2021 as increasing vaccination rates, Australians lear...

Euromonitor International's Department Stores in Australia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
