Abstracts

Following a decline in 2022, value sales of depilatories in Hong Kong returned to growth in 2023. With the lifting of social restrictions at the beginning of the year, consumers resumed activities outside of the home, such as swimming, travelling, or hiking. The increase in social activities drove up demand for depilatories. Following the long period of lockdowns, local consumers established the habit of self-care and grooming at home, and this habit continued into 2023, contributing to a full r...
