Abstracts

Dermatologicals is seeing solid current value growth in 2023, driven in part by higher retail prices. The category is benefiting from a return to normal daily lifestyles following the COVID-19 pandemic. Consumers' skin is being more exposed to combinations of heat and cold, which is one of the most common reasons for dermatological issues. After several years of decline, topical antifungals is seeing volume sales stabilise as consumers spend more time out of the home and exercise picks up, which...
