Abstracts

Over 2023, dermatologicals is expected to see fast retail current value growth across categories, supported by rising prices amid a highly inflationary climate. In retail volume terms, growth is set to be positive, if more moderate than in current value terms, with only medicated shampoos set to see a decline. The impact of Coronavirus (COVID-19) has lessened and the population has returned to pre-pandemic lifestyles. Most medications are not essential, but heightened levels of stress and anxiet...
