Abstracts

Dermatologicals continues its positive development in 2023, although value growth has subsided slightly compared to 2022 levels. On balance, value sales are still stronger than the pre-pandemic era when demand dropped amid social distancing and home seclusion. However, more consumers are visiting doctors and getting prescription products, rather than OTC medications, which is stifling sales growth in 2023 to an extent. Nevertheless, self-medication is still very common in dermatologicals and thi...
