Abstracts

Dermatologicals is expected to register moderate value growth in line with 2020. The pandemic is not having a significant effect on the product area. All the same, there are some changes. With people having a much more sedentary lifestyle, due to lockdowns and working from home, haemorrhoid treatments are expected to register healthy current value growth. Also, topical antifungals and antipruritics, have been boosted by more frequent hand washing, as a result of COVID-19. An ongoing issue is the...
