Abstracts

Retail sales of dermatologicals showed moderate growth in current value terms in 2023, with inflationary pressures less severe but still a factor. The dermatological category in Uzbekistan is an area lacking in development, largely due to the limited emphasis that locals place on dermatological practices. As a consequence, there is a tendency for Uzbeks to economize when buying dermatologicals, with many only applying products for vital issues and often postponing treatments. This can also be li...
