Abstracts

The sales of luxury apparel and footwear have not been affected by the low tourist numbers during the pandemic. Unlike other western countries, the main consumers of designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear) in Romania are affluent locals. In fact, the category is immensely popular in Romania and is the category with the largest value share in personal luxury. Such consumers tend to have high incomes and were less financially impacted by the pandemic than lower earners. As such, the travel r...
