Abstracts

Even though there have been no mandated store closures in Sweden since the outbreak of COVID-19, from January 2021 shops and departments stores were obliged to allow no more than one customer per ten square meters, and no more than 500 in total. In 2021, Swedish people continued to refrain from visiting stores for non-essential shopping, negatively affecting the recovery of physical retail in the first half of 2021. In the second half of the year, as the country progressed in lifting COVID-19 re...
