Abstracts

Designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear) will see a continued slowdown in its current value growth rate in 2021 against the backdrop of the pandemic, although, as in 2020, it will only be a minor slowdown. Many consumers in Taiwan have seen their disposable incomes reduced and have therefore been prioritising their spending towards more essential products. Some people have been spending less on designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear) due to spending more time in their homes and theref...
