Abstracts

Affluent consumers are returning to upmarket stores in line with an easing of restrictions. Reduced travel frequency had meant that they were unable to leave the United Arab Emirates for holidays in Western countries as they had done pre-pandemic. Hence, designer apparel and footwear is being purchased by residents within the country rather than abroad. As inbound tourism struggles to recover to pre-COVID-19 levels, overall value and volume sales remain lower than 2019 figures.
