Abstracts

Designer apparel and footwear saw a record current value decline in 2020. Domestic and international travel restrictions and lockdowns to curtail the spread of COVID-19, including a significant reduction of in-person events, as well as social distancing and hygiene regulations in stores, significantly diminished demand for designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear), as consumers spent significantly more time at home instead. The category saw a return to growth in 2021, as restrictions eased,...
