Abstracts

A combination of import barriers, declining inbound tourism, the withdrawal of several leading international brands and high inflation all had a negative impact on designer apparel in Argentina during 2013. After numerous brands such as Cartier, Escada and Ralph Lauren, among others, withdrew from the country in 2012, the opportunities for local producers increased. However, these opportunities virtually disappeared during 2013 as the importation of intermediate goods was also affected by the...
