Abstracts

Detskiy Mir-Tsentr is expected to benefit strongly from its new flagship store, which opened in Moscow in 2014. While overall traditional toys and games is likely to see sales stagnate in the forecast period, due to consumers facing economic constraints, the Moscow store will remain a popular tourist destination. Consumers will thus be more likely to spend in this store than they would elsewhere. The company is also expected to benefit from ongoing regional expansion in the forecast period,...
