Abstracts

Dietary supplements is set to see strong growth in current value terms in 2023. One major driver of this performance is the dynamic growth being seen in probiotic supplements in 2023, which is set to see the second consecutive year of double-digit growth in current value terms. Sales have already recovered and exceeded pre-pandemic levels with there being a growing awareness of the benefits of consuming these products. Probiotic supplements are expected to benefit from unit price increases in 20...
