Abstracts

In 2023, Thailand witnessed a continued strong demand for dietary supplements, reflecting a heightened consumer interest in preventative health. While fears surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic had largely subsided, there remained a key focus on products with immunity-related claims, as Thais looked to fortify their bodies' resistance to various diseases. Linzi (mushroom extract), echinacea, garlic and ginseng proved to be particularly popular, as well as combination products which highlighted the...
