Abstracts

Companies have been collecting petabytes of data, but to date struggle to make sense of it all. Artificial intelligence is enabling brands to better synthesise and incorporate those learnings into efforts to create a more personalised consumer experience. This report explores 10 innovative ways companies are leveraging artificial intelligence to move commerce into the next era of personalisation.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
