Abstracts

The global leader in digital technologies, Western Europe, has benefited from a robust fixed-line network and regulations that have promoted competition and investments. With economic recovery from the turmoil of the sovereign debt crisis strengthening, countries are pushing ahead with implementation of the Digital Agenda, which aims to create a single digital market in the region. Digital commerce and IoT are key growth segments, but online security and an ageing population pose challenges.

Strategy Briefings offer unique insight into emerging trends world-wide. Aimed squarely at strategists and planners, they draw on Euromonitor International's vast information resources to give top line insight across markets and within consumer segments. Written by some of our most experienced analysts, they are designed as provocations for senior management to use in their own forum, allowing them to stand back and reflect on the behaviour and motivation driving global markets today and tomorrow
