Abstracts

The channel did not see any important changes in the last couple of years of the review period, with no new brands entering the market or announcing their intention to do so. This meant that the existing players continued to gain ground, using new product launches to try and stimulate demand. In this context, Yanbal continued to lead the way leveraging its popular product catalogue and existing base of direct selling agents located across the country. The brand's good mix of quality products and...
