Abstracts

In 2023, direct selling in Colombia has benefited from its ease and speed of purchase, product variety and payment options. Growth is also attributable to expansion into more remote areas of the country. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, direct sellers in the country have initiated sales processes through the different platforms used in the channel. This has fostered the integral commercialisation of health and wellness products in the national territory, including in areas that previously d...
