Abstracts

Cameroon was not as affected by the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine as many other countries. Rising global energy prices in 2022 gave a boost to government coffers and helped stabilise the economy. However, ongoing civil conflict, as well as widespread poverty, restrained economic growth. All the same, while overall inflation was modest, volume sales fell. This was partly due to the height of the pandemic having passed and as a result, consumers spent less time at home, so less di...
