Abstracts

The automotive industry is a multi-billion dollar market, and sales of new passenger cars are projected to exceed 80 million units in 2022. The distribution model of new passenger cars sales has not evolved greatly since Ford's T-Model saw the advent of mass production in the early 1900s. Can technology revolutionise sales of new passenger cars?

Euromonitor International's Disruptors: Technology to Replace Car Salespeople global briefing offers insight on emerging geographies, key growth categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be it new product developments, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. From the latest innovations such as Smartphones, Ultrabooks and OLED TVs to existing technologies such as Laptops, Home Audio and Cinema Systems and In-Car Entertainment, Euromonitor International offers a consistent yet incisive snapshot of the Consumer Electronics industry. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and the criteria for success over the next five years.
