The total value of DIY, home improvement and garden centres reached EUR8,537 million in 2011. The Dutch economy was slow in 2011 which proved difficult for retailers operating in this segment. However, there was a small improvement in sales, with many stores reporting positive recruitment of personnel.

Euromonitor International's DIY, Home Improvement and Garden Centres in Netherlands report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
